

ROTARY ELEVATOR

Special Edition

August 11, 2009

Wanted: Deputy Editor for Rotary Elevator. See Karl for details. If no one steps up, I may be forced to beg, and no one wants to see that.

Bob Evans Special Meeting. We didn't have a regular Club meeting this week, but instead got the insider's preview of the new Bob Evans. A big thanks to Tom Sefton and all the crew who made our trip (and lunch) a great time for all. I think we can safely say that the restaurant is off to a great start!

This week's special edition will just be announcements and a few photos from the gathering at Bob Evans.

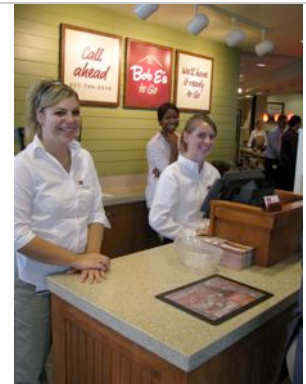

Announcements:

- August 18 Meeting is at Cedarville University! Dan Cathy, President and CEO of Chick-fil-A, will be speaking at Cedarville on the 18th, and the University has opened its doors to the Club for lunch and Mr. Cathy's presentation. We will kick off with a meet and greet at 11:30 followed by lunch at 11:45 in the Dixon Ministry Center room 224.
- Xenia Rotary Golf Outing. The golf outing is Friday September 11, 2009 at 10:00 a.m. at the WGC Golf Course, 944 Country Club Drive in Xenia. Please get your Golf Outing form to John LeBlanc.

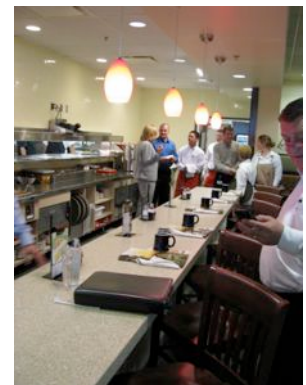

First New Customers. The staff mentioned that this was the first table through the door for our meeting at the new Bob Evans. You couldn't ask for a better crew to help get a new place off on the right foot. We wish Tom and his crew success in their new location!

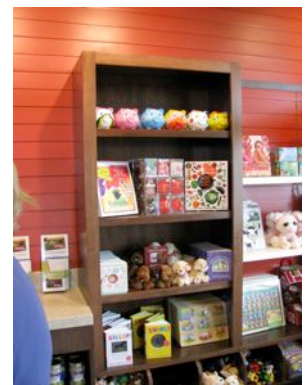

Welcome to Bob Evans! The friendly staff at Bob Evans are there to greet you as you entered the door with smiles on their faces. They were very proud of their new facility, and eager to show us around.

A View from the Counter. The staff get ready to hit the floor and serve this group of test customers. The new counter looks very sharp, and the lighting in the new building is pleasant and very effective.

Something for the kids. The new Bob Evans offers a variety of fun things to take home for the kids, including everything pictured here.

Joke Department

This mangy-looking guy goes into a bar and orders a drink. The bartender says "No way. I don't think you can pay for it." The guy says "You're right. I don't have any money, but if I show you something you haven't seen before, will you give me a drink?" The bartender says "Only if what you show me ain't risque."

"Deal!" says the guy, as he reaches into his coat pocket and pulls out a hamster. He puts the hamster on the bar and it runs to the end of the bar, down a barstool, across the room, up the piano, jumps on the key board and starts playing Gershwin songs. And the hamster is really good.

The bartender says, "You're right. I've never seen anything like that before. That hamster is truly good on the piano." The guy downs the drink and asks the bartender for another. "Money or another miracle else no drink," says the bartender. The guy reaches into his coat again and pulls out a frog. He puts the frog on the bar, and the frog starts to sing. He has a marvelous voice and great pitch, a fine singer. A stranger from the other end of the bar runs over to the guy and offers him $300 for the frog.

The guy says "It's a deal." He takes the three hundred and gives the frog to the stranger, who runs out of the bar with it.

The bartender says to the guy, "Are you some kind of nut! You sold a singing frog for $300? It must have been worth millions. You must be crazy!"

"Not so," says the guy. "The hamster is also a ventriloquist!"

The Four-Way Test

In 1932, Rotarian Herbert J. Taylor created The Four-Way Test, a code of ethics adopted by Rotary 11 years later. The test, which has been translated into more than 100 languages, asks the following questions:

Of the things we think, say or do

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
